No.B.17018/1/2025-DTO(S)

Dated Siaha, the 11th September, 2025

PUBLIC NOTICE

This is to inform the general public that the Motor Vehicle Inspector is currently unable to attend the office duties due to health-related issues. He has been granted medical leave for a period of 31 days, effective from 11th September 2025.

During this period, all official responsibilities typically handled by the MVI, especially those related to driving license test and verifications, will be temporarily suspended or severely limited. Therefore, the public is strongly advised not to submit applications related to driving license or schedule driving tests during the mentioned period. Applications submitted during this period may experience significant delays or may not be processed until the MVI resumes duty.

We sincerely regret the inconvenience caused and request your cooperation and understanding in this matter.
